Kapitel 13: M&M - Fade away

Every night you lay awake asking ,Is this all?'
the daily sunrise kills your soul the same sad footsteps that you make Every day you dream of colours on your grey and greyer sky but no painter passes by just planes you cannot follow

Every second you see clouds excepting that they rain again on buildings, pavements, yellow trams 'Flush away my life!' you shout

In this moment - what the fuck! – you see a cloud of personality!
You're watching lights and shadows, no mirror, but the same sad view perceiving, that it is like you the cloud, it is you fellow!

Lovely cloud you're raining warm raindrops down on me they're red and they are green they cure my sadness, they're healing!

Colourful steam around me happiness surrounds me breathing gold vomiting mud, throwin' away the things which suck and listen, what the cloud was told:

Enjoy the moment

don't regret the maybe-things you did or said

Do, what you want don't fear the traps look forward, 'caus you will be caught and don't forget, let your eyes watch it:

cowardice is not an option!

I'm dancing, saying, almost praying the feelings that I suddenly have:

You are the voice in my head That turns my life upside down Even if you leave you will remain.
Myself, can I ever retain?
A part of you will always be there, Even though you're anywhere.

Every night laying awake asking ,Is this all?'
Set yourself free so that the wonderful world is not damaged by a dream or wish that hasn't fulfilled 'Cause somewhere in the future there is waiting a new day which will bring back the light and your sorrows fade away.
