Kapitel 1: Doomsday

They're coming
A stampede of Nature's caprices They're fast and they're hunting visceral acting like Nature's forces

Relentless, a flood of Death Life take his last breath
For this fight, we shall bleed
And we will become their meed

This last day, believe me will end in this violence
It's our task, this finale combat against nature Death and Pain, this fight is assured until their screams will vanish into silence doubtless thoughts, unto our demise is sure

Its not ours, this world Planets aren't given to its heirs but human conceit will cause their fall
This World, drowned in battle, its theirs!
